

Graphic Designer

You will be responsible for creating images to be used in social media, on posters, flyers, reports, motion graphics and video

Where: home, nationwide

When: weekends, weekdays, evenings, flexible

Commitment: flexible

What will I be doing?

- Come up with concepts for artwork
- creating new and exciting posters, leaflets and promotional material both printed and web version
- create artwork in response to brief

What skills will I develop for my CV?

- Listening
- Problem Solving
- Creativity
- Staying Positive
- Aiming High
- Leadership
- Teamwork

What do I need?

- access to the internet, ability to work online, work remotely
- experience in graphic design or willingness to learn
- passion for using art to do good and create change
- Experience of using Cava or willingness to learn

What else do I need to know?

- Work is remote. Need access to computer and reliable access to internet.
- Able to work on your own and meet deadlines

What's next?

Once you've registered interest in this role, a member of our team will be in touch to explain the next steps in your volunteer journey. We will review your CV, if successful, followed by an interview

For any queries please get in touch with us: volunteer@whiteroseeducation.co.uk